

Arlington May Build Low-Cost Veterans' Homes; Possibilities Of $1,500,000 State Aid Studied

The possibilities of providing low-cost housing for many Arlington war veterans and their families under the terms of the recently-enacted Sears state bill are being earnestly studied by town officials, it was learned this week.

G. Bertram Washburn, chairman of the Veterans' Housing Committee was in conference with the board of selectmen Monday.

Following the conference it was stated that the possibilities were being studied, and that it was too early to announce any decision.

Arlington thus far has not gone in for any low-cost housing units for veterans such as have been provided in a number of other communities, though the township has made available building lots as home sites at a cost of $1 each.

Under the Sears bill, the state has set aside $200,000,000 to back up veterans' housing developments in the state, and local communities may share in this financing up to three per cent of tax valuations. With realty assessments here roughly, of $60,000,000, Arlington thus could get state backing in excess of $1,500,000.

There are, however, questions of site and of housing policy to be decided.

3 Taxi Firms Merge In New Association For 24-Hour Service

Inaugurating a new epoch in the conduct of the taxicab business in Arlington, owners of three local taxi companies announced this week end after months of ground-work—that they combined all their facilities into one central group to be known as the Arrow Taxi Association.

A great deal more than a merger is involved. The new association will offer meter service, with no charge for extra passengers and no charge for time consumed in answering calls; it also offers 24-hour service to any part of Arlington, with a pledge—under normal conditions—to have a cab on the spot within five minutes.

With headquarters at 24 Mass. Ave. and three cab stands at the start—at the Capitol Theatre, at Milton St. and Mass. Ave. and at 24 Mass. Ave.—the company has at its disposal six cabs and one limousine, with more to be added as required. And a cab may be reached at any time through one central phone number: AR 5-8400.

The association, which is an outgrowth of desire to give the public better service by consolidating available facilities, begins operations as of today—Thursday.

Included in the association are the former Parkway taxi, owned by Armand J. Doherty; the Red cabs, owned by Edward Cullen, and the East Arlington cabs, operated by Robert Flynn.

All cabs in the new combine will easily be recognizable by a color

Her Own Best Model

MRS. GRAYCE TOURELLE, popular owner of the Grayce Tourelle Shop at 675 Mass. Ave., tries on (for the photographer's benefit) a beribboned dark milan straw hat—one of the season's most favored models. Mrs. Tourelle knows her hats, she's been a milliner 35 years, in Los Angeles and other cities from coast to coast. In her Arlington shop she and three other milliners turn out many breath-taking creations.

Boy, 8, Overcome, 3 Others Made Ill By Carbon Monoxide Gas From Defective Gas Hot Water Heater

An eight-year-old boy was rushed to Symmes Hospital unconscious Sunday night, and three other persons were made ill, when carbon monoxide fumes from a defective gas hot water heater seeped through the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Bass, at 112 Webster St.

Members of the Bass family—Mr. and Mrs. Bass, their daughter Joan, 13, and John Jr.,—had been keeping the hot water heater going Sunday night. Joan was taking a bath when fumes from the heater, located in the kitchen made members of the family sick.

The father, checking up on his son in his bedroom, found him apparently unconscious. He rushed him to the open air, and summoned Dr. Robert E. Donovan of 691 Mass. Ave. The physician gave first aid and then called the police ambulance, which took the boy to the hospital.

Mr. Bass later told the Press that the gas heater, a used one recently installed by his landlord, had been condemned by the gas company.

Mrs. Hamill, Lover Of Dogs And Ducks And Other Pets, Moves To 'Dream House' With 5 Acres

Mrs. Mae Hamill of 19 Wyman Terrace, who has received many letters from animal lovers since the Press and other newspapers told—back in February—how for five years she had been feeding starving ducks during the winter on Spy Pond, is a happy woman indeed this week.

Partly because of the newspaper publicity, she and her husband Howard, a veteran telephone company employee, have now found and purchased just the home of their dreams—a four-room cottage with barn, henhouse and garage on five acres of land in Concord, where they can have all the animals they've longed to have.

The Hamills moved to their new home Monday, and one of their moving problems involved the transfer of one particular duck—a very frisky and very tame white duck—which came to Spy Pond during the winter and liked the Hamills' food so well that it stayed right on.

"I don't think anyone will object if we move our white duck with us," Mrs. Hamill told the Press. "After all, we're not going to coop him up but give him his freedom—after we let him know where the new feed bag is located."

Mrs. Hamill last winter spent as much as $6 a hundred pounds for feed, so that stray ducks on Spy Pond wouldn't starve. She frequently chopped holes in the ice "so they'd feel more at home," and it is estimated that in the last four or five years she saved the lives of several hundred ducks, which would otherwise have starved.

She likes other kinds of animals, too—dogs in particular. She has

Local Doctor, Passing By Accident Scene, Saves Life Of Girl, 9

The life of a nine-year-old girl who was struck and gravely injured by an auto in Boston last Thursday was saved by the prompt action of an Arlington doctor, who chanced to drive by the scene of the accident.

The local physician, Dr. Morton Swartz of 404 Mass. Ave., was driving down Commonwealth Ave. on his way to lecture at the College of Physicians and Surgeons, when he noticed a group of people gathered about a girl on the sidewalk opposite 721 Commonwealth Ave.

Leaving his car, Dr. Swartz was informed that the child had been struck by a car and that the ambulance was on its way. The girl was bleeding so profusely that the doctor decided against a further wait for the ambulance; he stopped the flow of blood and took her immediately into nearby Kenmore Hospital, where he is on the staff.

Examination showed that the child had suffered a fractured pelvis, and lacerations which required some 18 stitches. She had lost more than half her blood, and a was also treated for shock.

By Monday of this week the little girl was definitely out of danger, and by Tuesday sufficiently improved to be removed to Beth Israel Hospital. She faced, however, about a month's convalescence.

The girl is Sheila Clark, 9, an adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Clark of 721 Commonwealth Ave., Boston. She came to this country last December from County Galway in Ireland, and her brogue—once she could speak—captivated hospital attendants.

AYA Ball Leagues To Start Play Soon; 400 Answer Fund Appeal

With the senior AYA baseball league due to open in 11 days—on May 24—and the junior league opening May 27, members of the Arlington Auxiliary Police Association were getting a bit worried this week about having enough money to equip and start the teams off properly.

The Auxiliary Police, who sponsor the Arlington Youth Association, have mailed 11,000 letters to citizens of this city outlining the program of the AYA and asking for donations to help equip the baseball teams.

It was reported at the auxiliary group's monthly meeting Monday that, to date, returns have been received from about 400 persons. While this is encouraging, the response must be much more generous if the 1948 program is to be instituted on schedule and carried out as in former years.

Mother's Day Tea Is Given By Sorority

Alha Pi Chapter, Bet Sigma Phi, celebrated a Mother's Day tradition with a tea Sunday in a model kitchen at Ken Atkinson's.

Guests included the members' mothers, Miss Bernice Holmes, chapter advisor; Mrs. Dorothy Fekays, international representative; and Mrs. Robert Murphy, chapter social sponsor.

Dorothy Bergstrom, vice president, greeted and introduced the guests, while president Joan Juffe opened the program with a cordial welcome to the mothers and guests.

Dorothy Bergstrom gave a short resume of the chapter's activities and Charlotte Williams recited the poem, "For Mother's Day." The girls then presented their mothers with Beta Sigma Phi pins and strawberry shortcake, coffee and tea were served. Sally Spofford was committee chairman for the tea.

Audrey Clancy of 60 Newland Rd., has been elected secretary of the sophomore class at Emmanuel College.

5 Schools In Dance Recital

The sixth grades of five schools—Cutter, Brackett, Locke, Parmenter and Russell—held their final dance party May 6, at town hall, the event being sponsored by the Curry School of Dancing which conducts dancing lessons in the schools during the year.

Demonstrations of different types of dancing were given by Mrs. Grace Curry, Russell Curry and his dancing partner, Miss Dorothy Brackett, and by Harry Raynard and his partner Miss Grace McKenna.

Elimination dances were won by Miss Virginia Buck of Parmenter and Theodore Cutler of Brackett, and by Miss Janice Conrad of Locke and Robert McSorley of Brackett. John O'Connor gave a tap dance; while an exhibit in dance was given by Miss Joan Nutter and Richard Meehan.

PTA service committee chairmen acted as hostesses. They were Mrs. Marlin Johnston, Cutter; Mrs. Allen Hayes, Russell; Mrs. Edward Handschumaker, Locke; Mrs. Wesley McSorley, Jr., Brackett, and Mrs. Edward J. Booth Parmenter.

Sawdust Is Expensive

Fertilizer is expensive enough these days to be "as represented." C. J. Stiff of 47 Mt. Vernon St. complained to police this week that three men had sold him a load of manure for his lawn, but the purchase—he said—turned out to be nothing better than bedding sawdust.

Charter Is Presented To Troop 20

The annual presentation of the troop charter of Boy Scout Troop 20 was held Monday at Brackett School, with parents of the boys and other relatives as guests of honor.

The charter was formally presented by Henry E. Keenan, representing Sachem Council, to the Arlington Heights Improvement Association, which sponsors the troop. The association was represented by Roderick D. Bates.

After 17 troop committeemen received registrations for the year, Scoutmaster Warren Bean announced that the following seven scouts had earned their first class badges: Charles Boyd, Billy Phelps, Fred Glynn, Charlie Gatchell, Larry Mosely Bruce Faunce and Richard Bean. Second class badges were earned by Francis McCoy and Wayne Hollingsworth.

The troop committee is headed by Chairman Ira W. Smith and this year several new committeemen have been assigned to advancement and outdoor activities, including Leonard C. Webb, James R. Boyd, Vinal L. DeGrasse, Robert J. Mosely and Frank F. Guarino.

Following the exercises the troop put on a demonstration of competitive games. An active outdoor program is planned for the summer, with long weekend camping trips and mountain climbs.

Rogers of Whittemore St., was wed to Mr. James Christopher Traverse of Somerville, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Traverse.

White snapdragon banked the candlelight altar as Miss Rogers, wearing a gown of white satin with full train was escorted down the aisle on the arm of her father. The bride's finger tip veil of silk illusion fell from a wreath of orange blossoms and her cascade bouquet was of white orchids and stephanotis.

Dana Wingate Kelley, well known publisher and horse breeder of 416 Cambridge St., Winchester, is recovering in Winchester Hospital from serious facial injuries received last Sunday when he was kicked by one of his thoroughbred horses.

Mr. Kelley, whose printing and publishing interests extend to Arlington, Winchester and Wilmington, was kicked by a nervous mare, the mother of a foal born but a few days before.

Alone at the time in the breeding stables, Mr. Kelley after being hurt painfully groped his way to his home, where Mrs. Kelley immediately phoned for emergency assistance.

At the hospital it was found that his jaw and nose both were fractured, and that he had suffered other facial injuries. His eyesight fortunately was affected but temporarily.

His condition made an immediate operation impossible, but Monday morning he was operated upon by Dr. Harry L. Benson of Winchester and Dr. Richard Webster, who has an office on Beacon St., in Brookline. Dr. Webster is a plastic specialist.

Many calls were being received at the hospital as to Mr. Kelley's condition. His condition Wednesday was reported improved, but he will not be able to see visitors for some two weeks and after leaving the hospital will have to spend several weeks in convalescence.

Mr. Kelley, who owns the Winchester Herald and Wilmington Mirror, is associated in the same office with the Publisher of the Arlington Press. He was until last year editor and publisher of the Medford Daily Mercury.

He is one of the best known horse breeders in the east, specializing in thoroughbred Morgan horses.

Taxi Merger

scheme adopted for all vehicles used by the association. This color scheme is yellow and blue.

The association in a statement this week said:

"The benefits of a city-wide enterprise such as the Arrow Taxi Association are many. The motive behind the plan is first, to render better public service—any time of day or night.

"Some of the outstanding advantages to the public will be:

(1)-Cabs will be quickly available, at any time, by phoning ONE phone number.

(2)-No extra charge will be made for sending a cab to any part of town. The charge starts when the passenger steps in the cab.

(3)-All cabs are metered, and the meter is in operation only during such time as the passenger occupies the cab.

(4)-There is no extra charge for extra passengers; the meter reads the same whether there are one or four passengers.

(5)-By a consolidation of equipment, the public will be assured not only quicker and better service but of cabs that are maintained always at a maximum of efficiency.

"In the near future, the association expects to open other stands in the Center and in the Arlington Heights section.

Gasoline Stove In Explosion

Arthur A. Morrison of 31 Newland Rd., had a close escape from injury Saturday when a gasoline camping stove exploded in a house at Newport St., and Longfellow Rd.

The explosion caused a neighbor to phone the fire department, but actual damage was confined to one broken window-which previously was cracked, anyway. There was no fire.

Mr. Morrison, and David Winslow of Somerville, his prospective son-in-law, were working in the house which the Morrisons recently bought and are preparing to move into.

They were using the gasoline stove to heat water for removing wallpaper, and when Mr. Morrison noticed the stove was getting very hot he turned it off. It had been turned off when, a few moments later, it exploded.

False Alarms

Two false alarms were sent in over the weekend, and Patrolman George Fitzgibbon of the police juvenile bureau got busy tracking down the perpetrators.

A false alarm was sent in from Orvis Rd., and Freeman St. Saturday, and later the same day another came in from Appleton and Dow Sts.

2 Lost Boys Are Found

Two two-year-old boys who strayed from their home neighborhoods needed official assistance to find their homes again.

A Mr. Berman of 1465 Mass. Ave., notified police Friday afternoon that he had a lost boy at his home and two hours later, after the boy had been taken to police headquarters, a report came in that Franklin Deans, 2 1-2, of 76 Holland St., was missing from home. Franklin was taken home in a police car.

On Sunday Thomas Flynn 2, of 27 Michael St., strayed from home and landed at Gammell's, 46 Broadway, whence police restored him to his parents.

A prowler was active in the east end of town early Sunday morning.

At 12:50 a.m. came word to the police that someone was prowling around on Lakehill St., and two hours later a woman on Tufts St.,—six blocks away—phoned that someone was at her back door. The nocturnal marauder had disappeared when police scoured the neighborhood.

BB Shot Shatters Window

Homes and school buildings suffered their normal quota of broken windows over the weekend.

One window was broken at Junior High East, while the high school came in for more elaborate attention—with four broken windows.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Ryder at 172 Mt. Vernon St., their 14-year-old daughter, Nancy, got a fright Saturday when BB shots from an air rifle shattered a window of her bedroom, the pellets narrowly missing her.

Police later located the owner of the air rifle, which was confiscated.

With "very few exceptions" comic books are not desirable reading matter for children, and "cause very poor reading habits,"

Dog Runs Amuck; Is Cornered In Truck

An Irish setter that ran amuck and bit a farm worker Saturday made the mistake afterward of walking into the open door of a truck, where it was penned in and held until help arrived to take it away.

Joseph Luciano, 42, of 52 Milton St.—the farm worker—was knocking off for lunch at a Spy Pond truck farm, where he is employed, when he was attacked by the dog and bitten on the right wrist.

With Luciano were his employers, James Compabasso of 57

Broadway and James Panetta, and together the three men got into a truck and followed the dog up Orvis Rd., to see where he'd go.

At Mass. Ave., they got out and tried to capture the animal. They'd left the cab door open, and when the dog was cornered it climbed into the cab. Mr. Compabasso slammed the door shut and phoned the police.

Dog Officer Samuel Femia was on the scene a few minutes later to remove the dog for a period of observation, while Luciano was treated for the dog bite by Dr.
Patrick Compabasso.

Scooping Around Arlington High

with KATHLEEN KIRSCHBAUM

The Student Council started its May activities by attending the
A. B. S. C. Massachusetts Annual Convention at New Bedford. Ten A. H. S. council members, among them the three chosen delegates, Jayne Walworth, Loraine Tucker, and Robert Lenon, enjoyed a well-planned day at N. B. High School.
First on the agenda were short speeches by a representative for Governor Bradford, and New Bedford's mayor, superintendent, and principal. Following were individual forums at which "Outstanding Activities Of The Student Council This Year" was the topic of discussion. Arlington delegates spoke on their change of constitution and settling the football ticket dispute. R. O. T. C. drills and girls' military drills took place before the turkey dinner, and at the general assembly, after the meal, the most interesting individual forum discussion was chosen.
Completing the day's program were election of officers and a dance in the gym.

Last Friday the G. A. A. board met to discuss the association's plans for the remainder of the year. The girls are looking forward to a splash party in the near future and the annual Crane's Beach outing the first part of June.

In the recent girls' baseball game with Lexington, Arlington was victorious. The score was 17-16.

On Monday of this week, the Girls' Club elected next year's officers. They are Evelyn Caruso, president; Shirley Keith, vice president; Corine Romley, treasurer; and Lois art and Freya Ruger, secretaries.

The following A. H. S. seniors have been accepted at colleges: Pat Loftus, College of Pharmacy; Bill McSweeney, Boston College; Sunny Burke, Larsen College; Helene Paresky, Kathleen Dell; Bernie Fitzmaurice, Boston College; Marion Slattery, Simmons; Doris Johnson, Colorado Women's College; Dick Myers, Yale; Buddy Foley, University of Massachusetts; Miriam Olson, Bates; Evelyn MacLean, Wilfred Academy. This of course, is not a complete list.

I WONDER if Arthur W. Sampson and Henry Skillings aren't quite a hit as members of the Rotary Troubadours?

I WONDER who will get the three lifeguard jobs at Reservoir Beach this summer?

I WONDER how many Security
Bonds YOU'RE buying?

I WONDER what Officer Knowles thought when he found a flare gun in a parked car?

I WONDER who was the child on a scooter who caused a certain householder to report him to the police as a "disturbance"?

I WONDER how many repair jobs come in at Arrow Motors because of charming Pat Colucci, who handles the service accounts?

Winner Of Records On Radio Program

Miss Margaret Donovan, of 26 Kilsyth Road, has been awarded an album of recorded hit tunes, as a winner of the "Platter-Puzzle" on the "Sunday Best" program over WCOP.

Miss Donovan correctly identified the "Puzzle" tune as "Rhapsody In Blue" by Gershwin, and answered the cue question. "What artist heard on the American Broadcasting Company network made this tune famous?" The an-

Cast Of 90 Is Ready To Present Legion's 'Minstrel Memories'

With a cast of outstanding local talent insuring plenty of fun and entertainment, Medford Post of the American Legion is ready to stage its first minstrel show in years—"Minstrel Memories".

Two main performances will be given: next Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, at town hall. But on Sunday there will be a special matinee show for children, when the amateur thespians and singers and dancers and jesters will show the results of their six weeks of rehearsals.

William J. Finn, director of the production, said this week: "We've got a really good show, and everyone who sees it will enjoy every minute of it."

Mr. Finn is particularly proud of the chorus of 85 of whom 70 are girls, and specialties spotted through the performance will find many well known entertainers. The entire show will be recorded by a sound man.

Bill McKeever, Legion commander, will be the interlocutor, heading endmen Bill Tryder, Zeke Motherway, Louis Martelli, Hobe Sanborn, Bob Farrington, Huck Dolan, John Wood and Mike Vedetti.

Hobe Sanborn is stage manager, James Spriggs in charge of scenery, Frank Wiley electrician and Andrew Magnus in charge of ushers.

Danny Zopatti will be a featured accordionist, James Spriggs will give the opening prologue and soloists will include Gene Leonard, Ann Marie McKeever Bill Furden, Hobe Sanborn, Walter Smith, Bob Farrington, Huak Dolan Don Wood Mike Vedetti, Beatrice Brouillette.

Other specialties: acrobatic dance, Adelva Fernandez; three maids of harmony, Eleanor Shields Betty Lawless and Ann Frazer; the Singing Legionnaires, Joe Barry and Bill Finn; duet, Frances Florencourt and Pat Furlong; day at dancing school, St. Agnes girls; harmonica man, Tony Morello.

University's Feature Bill

The adventures of a Norwegian family in San Francisco some 40 years ago form the basis for the gay screen offering, "I Remember Mama", which starts Sunday for four days at the University Theatre. Irene Dunne, as the hard-working mother about whom the action revolves, has as co-stars Barbara Bell Geddes, Oscar Homolka and Philip Born. Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Edgar Bergen, Rudy Valle and Barbara O'Neill are featured. The picture is based upon the Broadway stage success adapted from the novel "Mama's Bank Account" by Kathryn Forbes.

"The March of Time-Crisis in Italy" and other short subjects complete the program.

"To The Victor" which starts Thursday, tells the story of a patriotic Frenchman attempting to deal with returned traitors. It is adventurous, romantic and thoughtful in its underlying meaning and logically concluded, which is helped by the fact that much of the action was photographed in post-war Paris and Normandy. The cast is well chosen, with Dennis Morgan as an American soldier involved in the black market and Vivica Linfors as the distraught wife of a traitor.

"The Inside Story", an entertaining comedy-drama, is the companion film. The cast includes Marsha Hunt, William Lundigan and Charles Winniger.

Milkman Was In A Hurry

Broken bottles aren't of much use, and it's a job to pick up the pieces, so when a milkman dropped a case of bottles Sunday morning on Highland Ave., at Gray St., he decided he'd just leave the debris there.

But a citizen who saw the incident phoned police, and Patrolman Sweeney got there in time to corral the milkman.

The police report says cryptically: "Sweeney made him return and pick up the broken bottles."

Banquet By Cub Pack

As a climax to a highly successful season, Cub Pack 8 held its annual banquet at Calvary Methodist Church last Thursday evening, May 6th. Approximately 150 persons were in attendance, including cubs, parents and invited guests.

The evening was featured by an address of welcome by Cubmaster McManis, presentation of awards to the various cubs, by Henry Lance presentation of the charter by Cub Commissioner Henry C. Behr, presentation of registration certificates by Lee Moore and greetings from Pack 83 sponsors, represented by Mrs. Milton Bretscher, president of the Hardy School, P. T. A.

An indoor track meet for the cubs was held under direction of William Connell. Suitable awards were presented.

Cubmaster McManis announced his resignation due to pressure of other business, but will continue as assistant cubmaster. Mrs. Bertrell will be the new cubmaster.
